STATUS CONFERENCE held in chambers. Mrs. Ann Thatcher Anderson, for the EEO, participated by phone. The Court is informed that the complainant is not seeking compensatory nor punitive damages. He is seeking reinstatement and back pay, plus pre-judgment interest. He requests that the pay scale be produced within thirty days so that the calculations may be worked out.

Co-defendant U.I.A. stated that the complainant may be placed in a non-union position.

Co-defendant A.A.A. is granted thirty days to produce the pay scales. The parties are granted thirty days thereafter to do the calculations and study the alternatives that may exist as to the reinstatement. By June 19, 2000, the parties shall submit the calculations they reached to the Court. By June 19, they also should have resolved the specific
